GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS: This application is for use in claiming a property tax exemption pursuant to Tax Code Section 11.31. You must furnish all information and documentation required by the application concerning property owned on Jan. 1 of the year for which the exemption is requested.

FILING INSTRUCTIONS: You must furnish all information and documentation required by this application so that the chief appraiser is able to determine whether the statutory qualifications for the exemption have been met. This document and all supporting documentation must be filed with the appraisal district office in each county in which the property is located. Do not file this document with the Texas Comptroller of Public Accounts. A directory with contact information for appraisal district offices may be found on the Comptroller's website.

APPLICATION DEADLINE: You must file the completed application with all required documentation between Jan. 1 and no later than April 30 of the year for which you are requesting an exemption.

WHEN NEW APPLICATION IS REQUIRED: Pursuant to Tax Code Section 11.43(c), if the chief appraiser grants the exemption, you need not reapply annually unless the chief appraiser requires it to confirm current qualifications for the exemption. The chief appraiser must deliver a written notice that a new application is required, accompanied by an appropriate application form.

OTHER IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Pursuant to Tax Code Section 11.45, after considering this application and all relevant information, the chief appraiser may request additional information from you. You must provide the additional information within 30 days of the request or the application is denied. For good cause shown, the chief appraiser may extend the deadline for furnishing the additional information by written order for a single period not to exceed 15 days.

If this application is for an exemption from ad valorem taxation of property owned by a charitable organization with a federal tax identification number, that number may be provided here in lieu of a driver's license number, personal identification certificate number or social security number:

* Unless the applicant is a charitable organization with a federal tax identification number, the applicant's driver's license number, personal identification certificate number or social security account number is required. Pursuant to Tax Code Section 11.48(a), a driver's license number, personal identification certificate number or social security account number provided in an application for an exemption filed with a chief appraiser is confidential and not open to public inspection. The information may not be disclosed to anyone other than an employee of the appraisal office who appraises property, except as authorized by Tax Code Section 11.48(b). If the applicant is a charitable organization with a federal tax identification number, the applicant may provide the organization's federal tax identification number in lieu of a driver's license number, personal identification certificate number or social security account number.
